KurzbeschreibungThe talented stage actress and storyteller Laura Cable is bringing the Jazz Eras Romance and Suspense of 'Nelly' to life in the audio version. Laura Cable: "'Nelly' was an absolute dream to narrate; a true hybrid of a novel, play, and screenplay with dialogue that is theatrical, yet very natural. As an actor, I love Nora A.M. Crown's style. And as a reader, I couldn't put this book down!"Encompassing the high speed dialogs of plays and the scene directives of screenplays combined within the easy to follow format of a novel!London 1923: Nellys secret is only one obstacle that is threatening her happiness. ...So I told him about my fathers death three years ago and Emilys death five years ago. Except for the Why and How. That it was my fault.... She embarks on a journey to the dark parts of Hamburg to find answers. Only to be confronted with more secrets. We went inside the bar which looked and smelled like any other sailor bar in the world: Of alcohol, sweat, urine and the will to do anything for the right amount of money. We both understood why anybody would want to frequent such an establishment: To get something that was not theirs. Everybodys gaze turned toward us. In silence.... 'Nelly' spans three styles: novel, play and screenplay. Why, you might ask? Do you like to be a part of the story rather than a mere spectator? Do you like plays? Or screenplays?Are you a Free Thinker? Are you tired of books that describe every detail no matter how trivial? Books that rely more on word count than the importance of the actual words? Look no further! 'Nelly' will inspire you to indulge the freedom of your own imagination as you are taken through the scenes of the story. Your imaginative choices bring the details to life. You are the director of the story as a play on stage or a movie. You set the limits to your imagination! So scroll up and grab your copy or audio and read or listen instantly!

ber den Autor und weitere MitwirkendeNora A.M. Crown has loved books and movies ever since she can remember. Following this passion she decided to write stories encompassing the high speed dialogues ofplaysand the scene directives ofscreenplayscombined within the easy to follow format of anovel! The readers have the chance to imagine every setting as a scene in a movie . They get to choose their preferred actors and surroundings. The imaginative powers make the readers become part of the story rather than remain on the side lines as mere spectators. Nora lives with her artist husband and their son in California. When not writing she is busy homeschooling their son, doing yoga, watching movies, reading, visiting museums and art galleries and going for long walks.
