unglaublich: Nämlich unglaublich konstruiert und unglaubwürdig. Von dieser Leserschaft schade, ich hatte mich auf einen neuen Autor gefreut - aber: Es handelt sich um einen Plot, wie man ihn so oder ähnlich schon tausendmal besser gelesen hat. Um keinen Spoiler zu bieten, vermeide ich hier die Auflistung zu erwähnen, aber: Die ganze Geschichte zieht sich wie ein Kaugummi, ein Zufall reiht sich an den anderen, einer unglaublicher als der andere. Dazu bleiben der Hauptdarsteller und die weiteren Protagonisten sehr blaß, man lebt und leidet mit ihnen überhaupt nicht mit. Was auch strukturiert ist, dass man am Anfang die ganze Vorgeschichte von unserem "Helden" nicht kennt und zu viele Namen und Ereignisse auftauchen, mit denen man überhaupt nichts anfangen kann. Fazit: Die Rückseite mit der Zusammenfassung der Handlung ist schon das Beste am Krimi - der Plot zieht und zieht sich und hängt sich von einem unlogischen Ereignis zum nächsten Zufall, so dass man schon teilweise schon aus dem Staunen nicht mehr herauskommt - und aus dem Kopfschütteln. Nicht empfehlenswert, kein spannender Krimi, kein Pageturner - schade! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Ich liebe die Krimis um David Raker. Vor ein 2 Jahren habe ich mir im Rahmen einer Englandreise vor Ort den damals aktuellen Krimi von Tim Weaver gekauft. Mich hat dieser Thriller dermaßen fasziniert, dass ich zwischenzeitlich alle bisherigen Bände in Originalsprache gelesen habe. Das Englisch liest sich sehr gut. Die Krimis spielen teils in London aber auch im indischen Südwesten von England, was neben der immer packenden Story auch für einen geografischen Reiz sorgt.

Kurzbeschreibung Never Coming Back was a Richard and Judy Book Club pick and National Book Award Nominee. Perfect for fans of Clare Mackintosh's I See You and Jo Nesbo's The Thirst.***A SECRET THAT WILL CHANGE LIVES FOREVER It was supposed to be the start of a big night out. But when Emily Kane arrives at her sister Carrie's house, she finds the front door unlocked and no one inside. Dinner's cooking, the TV's on. Carrie, her husband and their two daughters are gone. When the police draw a blank, Emily asks missing persons investigator David Raker to find them. It's clear someone doesn't want the family found. But as he gets closer to the truth, Raker begins to uncover evidence of a sinister cover-up, spanning decades and costing countless lives. And worse, in trying to find Emily's missing family, he might just have made himself the next target . . .
