KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nice and Fast ReadVon Jasmin SchulzeSkye is a normal girl, at least as normal as you can be when you can't remember your past and lived in group homes all your life. Until one day, after partying and drinking way too much, she wakes up in a hotel room with a handsome stranger, who claims her to be a princess..Actually Never let you fall is nothing new, regarding the story: A lost princess sets out to save her kingdom from an evil king. Read that many times already, but I have to admit I still fell in love with Skye and Xander, while reading Never let you fall. Those two are just tooo cute.I also enjoyed how it's not openly obvious, who might be the bad guys.Although I'm a little bit disappointed in the ending. (view spoiler) It's kind of an open end and makes the novel feel incomplete. Since it's a series it might not be too bad, but it feels like a bad attempt at a cliffhanger.(Since I don't feel the thrill of wanting to read the next novel immediately, but still am not satisfied with how it ended.)Overall it was a great and cute read though. I loved how the author changed between Skye's and Xander's POV all the time. Even though it was kind of confusing at first, I got accustomed to it easily. So I'm giving Never let you fall 4 stars and will look forward to read the next novel in this series! :)

KurzbeschreibungTheir journey began with a promise I wont let you fall. You will not die for me. I cant live with that, Xander, and I would rather let them take me before I let them kill you. He opened his mouth to argue, but I held up my hand. Dont argue it. Theres no point. Ive made up my mind. He shook his head, but didnt argue. Instead, he promised as he always did, If anything happens to you if we get separated, if you martyr yourself anything, Skye. As long as I am breathing, I will always find you. Always. Those were precisely the words Id counted on him saying.AN ORPHAN with no memory of her past and no hope for her future.A GUARDIAN determined to keep her safe.A DESTINY neither of them expected.KurzbeschreibungTheir journey began with a promise I wont let you fall. She is an avid Yankees fan, loves New England, being outdoors and misses snow. However she thinks southern boys are hotter, Alabama football is the only REAL football out there and sweet tea is the best thing this side of heaven and her childrens laughter! Her family, an amazing husband and three awesome kids, have planted their roots in the middle of Micheles two childhood homes in Charlotte, North Carolina. Never Let You Fall is Micheles first novel and she is beyond thrilled to have finally followed up on a dream she has held for over 20 years! God willing there will be many many more books to follow.
