Shadowrider Einer der schwächeren Bände aus der Leigh Koslow Serie. Ist auch nur eine Kurzgeschichte - vor allem die ersten Bücher der Serie sind für Krimi-Fans wirklich empfehlenswert.

Kurzbeschreibung A Leigh Koslow Mystery Short Story (Part of the USA-Today and Kindle Top Ten bestselling Leigh Koslow Mystery Series) [6673 words] Originally published in the anthology AND THE DYING IS EASY: All New Tales of Summertime Suspense, by the Signet/NAL division of Penguin Putnam, Inc., in June 2001. Newlywed Leigh is only too happy to tag along when her new husband's career takes him to a weekend convention in Niagara Falls. But true to her typical luck she quickly finds herself in the wrong place at the wrong time, with potentially deadly--and almost certainly watery--results! (Note: Chronologically, this story occurs between Never Preach Past Noon and Never Kissed Goodnight. It is available in print as bonus material within the 2012 CreateSpace edition of Never Kissed Goodnight.)
