KurzbeschreibungNight Boys (Francis Tenn and Christy Lawless Shaughn) with friends Styles Peterson, and Paavo Takimaki as their assistants, venture up to Newcastle upon Tyne to play two sets in the city, and most importantly perform on the soon to be off the air music programme The Roxy, bringing Acid House parties to TV audiences. For Francis the visit up North, staying in his late grandparents' bungalow, is a reminder of how his life could have been if hed been allowed to grow up there. His past is all around him, a constant reminder. Christy expects a fun trip of clubs and parties. Though his past has never been tied to the city it is not as far away as he would have liked, taking him by surprise. What begins as an enjoyable trip to the North mixing business and pleasure for the foursome turns sinister and may cost one of them their life!KurzbeschreibungNight Boys (Francis Tenn and Christy Lawless Shaughn) with friends Styles Peterson, and Paavo Takimaki as their assistants, venture up to Newcastle upon Tyne to play two sets in
