love story
Von LaylaReader
This story, set in Tuscany and London, is very different from the historical romances I have read by Barbara Samuel. The focus is almost entirely on the love and passion between Cassandra and Basilio - a deeply personal and intense journey, rather than one forced by dramatic historical events. They are already familiar, having enjoyed intellectual exchange in many letters written over 2 years. Assuming that she is an older widow, Basilio invites her to Italy and she accepts, also assuming that he is an older man and therefore 'safe'. As soon as they see each other it is clear that their attraction is not limited to the mind. Each one feels drawn to the other in a sensual and passionate response. As a widow, Cassandra is free and has no intention of marrying again. Her late husband was a cruel man and she suffered physical abuse that has left her nervous and sceptical about any new lover. She is also reluctant to relinquish her freedom and independence. Basilio is betrothed to a young girl although neither one wants the marriage. He cares about Analise and wants to spare her a worse fate than marrying him. She is a devout and unworldly girl, brought up in a convent and her dearest wish has always been to become a nun. Cassandra and Basilio become lovers but events drive them apart as they have too much integrity to hurt others, especially the innocent Analise. Cassandra, Basilio and Analise are all caught in a web that is not of their making and their story is very moving.

Von Andreas Orakulus
Unfassbar, was die beiden SARDO-Brüder sich da ausgedacht haben. Phil (v/guit/dr) und Tony (v/bass) fackeln ein Thrash-Feuwerk ab, das sich gewaschen hat. Erst denkst Du, das ist sie, die fehlende Scheibe zwischen der Hell awaits und der Reign in blood-Scheibe. Aber dann weißt Du, nein, so hätte sie klingen können, die Nachfolgescheibe zu Reign...kein Kommerz, keine Besch...
South of heaven, nein Freunde, Slayer klingen seit 20 Jahren nicht mehr so. Und da kommen diese beiden Grnschnbel und zimmern mal eben 2008 diese Jahrtausendscheibe ein. ALLES ist hier drin, alle Einflüsse; brillante Riffs à la Slayer, Dark wie Venom, Cool wie Destructor, ja alles in allem weit über der Top: Das ist die beste Scheibe, die ich seit Trench Hells Southern Cross Ripper gehört habe. K A U F E N !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
