is not enough!
Von Anna SalamatinI just can't tell you how much I loved this story! I have read a lot of Wynter Daniels work and I have to say that "Not Enough" is my new favorite!This is an emotionally charged in depth look at what one person's addiction can do to a family.Kitty Murphy was only 18 when she had her son Josh. She was left to struggle and raise him alone after the father dropped her and her family disowned her. So, she did.....now she owns her own hair/nail salon with employees, that have become good friends...but all is not well for Kitty. She waits everyday, hoping to hear from her son. You see Josh is an addict. But this isn't all, Kitty has developers buying up all the businesses in the area to build a new complex and they want hers too. When the gorgeous Mr. Harrison Wentworth comes calling with an offer, Kitty's refusal to sell gives Harrison a reason to keep coming back. He is taken with this feisty red head and wants to see more of her. But Kitty is about to have one more item to handle. It seems Josh has a girlfriend, and she is going to have Josh's baby. Will Josh be able to do what he needs to in order to take care of Brooke and their child? Will Kitty allow Harrison to help, in light of their newly found romance? I really enjoyed watching that relationship grow. (pretty hot and heavy) I was pleasantly surprised by Josh as he stepped up to his responsibilities. Got a job, Was taking care of Brooke when there was a complication and she needed to be off her feet. He was clean.....So I was absolutely floored with what happens next. I never saw this coming! I'm not big on spoilers, I have given you the jist of it, so you'll have to read this soul shattering story for yourself.
