Good quick readVon Ein KundeNormally I don't read Silhouette or Harlequin, but since Meagan McKinney is one of my favorite authors, I couldn't resist.Eight years earlier Honor fell in love with her next door neighbor Mark. After one wonderful summer together, Mark's parents suddenly were killed and he had to leave to run his "multi-billion" dollar company (what do you expect??). After Mark left Honor realized she was pregnant. Unable to get word to Mark that he was about to become a father, Honor gave birth to a daughter, Lockey.Now eight years later Mark is back. He'd wants Honor back, but can Honor trust him with her secret?Overall, this was a pretty good book. I read it in one day, about an hour and a half to two hours. I love most of Ms. McKinney's books, mostly her older books.
