KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. zweite ChancenVon Renate H.Cynthia ist geschieden und vermeidet Beziehungen, um nicht nochmals verletzt zu werden. Sie ist Psychologin, die mit den Opfern von Verbrechen und Soldaten mit PTSD arbeitet. Jonah ist Kriegsveteran mit PTSD und beruflich Richter. Er glaubt nicht an die Hilfe von Psychologen, sondern "behandelt" sich lieber selber.

Durch Zufall treffen sich diese Beiden und beginnen eine Beziehung, die offiziell keine ist. Das Buch hat mich von Beginn an fasziniert. Es ist sehr gut und flüssig geschrieben, die Handlung lebensnah und gut vorstellbar. Die langsame Annäherung mit div. Rückschritten hat mir sehr gut gefallen. Es ist schon eine Geschichte zu lesen, in der die Hauptdarsteller über 40 sind, und sich trotzdem verlieben und auch Sex haben dürfen. Eine Leseempfehlung für alle, die an zweite Chancen im Leben glauben.

Kurzbeschreibung All the pleasures and none of the pain, that's what Cynthia Buckingham wants in a relationship these days. A one-night stand with Jonah Colt seems to fit that bill perfectly. Newly divorced, she's too busy planning her daughter's wedding for any serious involvement. Besides, her true passion is helping victims of PTSD reclaim their lives. Waking up after spending the night with a woman he barely knows, Jonah is stunned to realize sex for the sake of sex isn't enough for him anymore. A veteran of more military battles than he cares to count, he wants to forget it all and focus on peaceful civilian life. Except flashbacks won't allow it. Falling for Cynthia makes Jonah regret his weakened state, but he'd rather hide the truth than face it. When she sets aside everything she believes in to help him heal, can he accept her help--and her love?
