Von Audrey Hart : The Dig: Zoe and Zeus (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Dig: Zoe and Zeus (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. das gute iPhone..Von AnnaVon Anfang an fand ich die Story ganz nett, ich mein die Synopsis klingt auch seehr vielversprechend und trifft eben auch genau den Trend mit den Gttern usw.Okay, sie ist also in den Ferien auf einer Ausgrabung in Griechenland, geht alleine auf Entdeckungstour in einem abgespernten Bereich und ja, kann sich jetzt jeder denken wird dann um die 3000 Jahre zurck katapultiert. Wie? Liegt doch auf der Hand, durch ein gigantisches, menschengroes iPhone dass da rumsteht. Ja, ein iPhone. Ganz ehrlich, das hat mich sowas von abgeturnt.Man kann hier ja schlecht von Glaubwürdigkeit reden wenn es um Zeitreisen ins antike Griechenland geht, aber in einer Tempelruine in einem lehmigen Raum zu dem man nur durch einen Krabbel-Tunnel gelangt, ein iPhone? Gut, das war so der erste Dämpfer und ja ich war versucht das Lesen zu lassen, aber ein paar Gags klangen schon vielversprechend, flux durch die Zeit gereist trifft sie erstmal auf Creusa die Nymphe und dieser Part macht dann erstmal einiges wieder wett. Es stellt sich raus dass auch Zoe göttliche Kräfte hat, ohne zu wissen wen sie vor sich hat bandelt sie ein wenig mit dem guten Zeus an (wer hätte es auch bei dem Titel gedacht) und später geht es auf den Mount Olymp zu den anderen Göttern die auch rein uerlich Teenagers sind. Zwischendurch kam mir das eher vor wie Jersey Shore meets Mythologie, aber alles in allem ist es mal eine nette Herangehensweise an das Thema. Zoe wächst einem schon ans Herz, eine recht vorbildliche Protagonistin die nicht ganz auf den Mund gefallen ist, mal die frische Idee mit den Teenie-Göttern (die trotzdem schon ihre Jahre auf dem Buckel haben) und am Ende der Streit zwischen den Göttern und nebenbei die kleine aufkeimende Romanze zwischen Z Z (ein wenig oberflächlich und zu kurz gekommen meiner Meinung nach) macht The Dig zu einem soliden, netten Buch. Wo endet das Ganze? Am iPhone. Ganz ehrlich, war das nötig? Ich fands ok, nicht sagenhaft aber ganz gut, auf Band zwei der Triologie bin ich mittelmig gespannt. Kleiner Spoiler: Ich werde mir bestimmt mal anschauen ob/ wie sich Zeus dann in Zoes/ unserer Welt schlagen wird..
