Good Superhero YarnVon CustomerIt definitely has a great opening scene and a gripping storyline - some logical shortcomings and one or two overly lengthy fight scenes shouldn't keep you from trying it out. Some might be offended by a lot of typos though ... all in all a fascinating novel with a solid sense of wonder feeling ...1 von 1

Unkreativ bis zum geht nicht mehr Von Kunde Wo soll ich anfangen: 1. Regierung hat geheime Organisation die Bses macht 2. Humor nicht existent 3. 3 POVs wovon zumindest der vom FBI Agent weg knnte 4. Schlechte Pseudo Science (ich meine weshalb kann sie auf einmal 10mal so schwer sein wenn sie nichts gegessen hat oder Elemente im Krper haben die auf der Erde nicht existieren) 5. Die Schreibweise ist verwirrend Die Story ist nicht interessant, lustig oder "Science", sondern einfach nur klischeehaft bis zum geht nicht mehr. Ich hatte das Gefhl das der Autor versucht hat einen Krimi zu erstellen und nicht verstanden hat das man dafr Sachen mysteris lassen muss. Das einzigste was ich gut finde ist das die Charaktere einigermassen Sinnvoll handeln.

Kurzbeschreibung The First tells the origin story of Sophia Dennison, the first and most powerful superhuman on the planet. Sophia Dennison wanted a normal life. She wanted to raise a family with the love of her life, and further her medical career as an up and coming surgeon in neurology But everything changed when she was convicted and sentenced to death for the brutal murder of her husband. After four years on death row, Sophia takes her final walk in the Mountain View Facility in Gatesville and is put to death by lethal injection at 12:00AM midnight. Several hours after her execution, FBI Agent Mark Armitage is called to investigate a serious disturbance at the prison. Upon arriving he finds the place a war zone. After being debriefed by his friend and partner Dustin Mercer, he views the video tapes and learns that the source of the destruction is Sophia. Footage reveals that seven minutes after her execution she miraculously resurrected, breaking free of her bonds and overpowering several guards before being viciously gunned down and dying for a second time. Sophia Dennison has escaped, and is now on the run. The hunt is on for the first actual superhuman.

ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Kipjo K. Ewers was born July 1, 1975. At an early age, he had an active imagination. By the time he started kindergarten he would create fictional stories, one of his favorites was about a character named Old Man Norris who hated everyone in the world except for him. When Kipjo attended our Lady of Victory Elementary school in Mount Vernon, NY he continued writing and reading stories to his classmates. His teacher, Mrs. Green, told him the children would laugh. However, she would remind Kipjo that this is how some of the great stories they read actually came about so don't let what others think deter him from continuing to write. After elementary school, Kipjo was enrolled at Salesian High School in New Rochelle, NY. He would continue his education at Iona College majoring in English and Business Administration. A career in the corporate world awaited Kipjo after college. He worked for several major firms within the New York area, but his passion was always to be a journalist/writer. In his off time, he would write for e-Fed wrestling games and composed a number of short stories, but these were not published. He also began creating 3D graphic artwork, which can be found on sites such as Renderosity.com and Runtime.com. In 2012, Kipjo began creating a new superhuman universe. Finding inspiration and solace in the loss of his first daughter due to an unfortunate miscarriage that devastated both his loving wife and Co-Founder, Jacquelin, and himself; he began writing a hero origin story now titled The First. He created a world for his daughter where she not only lives, but is the strongest superhuman in the universe. He hopes to continue her story as both a novel and comic book series.
