KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Top 10Von KundeDie Triologie geht sicher zu meiner Top10 der besten je gelesenen Bcher. Wenn man die Bcher lesen will, sollte man jedoch kein Problem mit starken Gewaltdarstellungen haben.0 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. AWESOME!! 5 stars and more!Von JI've never been a big fan of fantasy books until I came across Joe Abercrombie. And now I'm in love with his writing! I started out with the "First Law Trilogy" a couple of years ago when a friend told me about them. At first I was skeptical, but that changed pretty fast. After I finished these three books I ordered those books, that were already published by than and am still waiting for more awesome stories by Joe Abercrombie.The First Law has all you are looking forward to in a book and you will not regret buying them! You can almost see the characters in front of you! You are defiantly going to sympathize with them, be as surprised as they are by various turns in the story and be sad once the story is coming to an end.If you are asking for my opinion:

Get the FIRST LAW TRILOGY and order BEST SERVED COLD, HEROES and RED COUNTRY as well ;-)

I could naturally have been more vulgar in my choice of expletive given the nature of the First Law trilogy and I still wouldn't have even come close to how vulgar the series is. I was shocked and appalled! Shocked and appalled mostly by the fact that the brutally vivid descriptions of fights and battles could capture and hold me so profoundly, that I got used to it, that I enjoyed it and that in the end it was like going to a splatter movie, but one with a really interesting and well thought-out storyline, characters and world. Heroes? Who needs em? There are no Heroes to see here, if you need or want Heroes this is not the book for you, if you want gritty characters with lots of sharp edges, lots of faults and don't mind graphically written gory details then enjoy because this was written for you.
