Geschichte entsprechend aufgebaut, denn sie reiht die Highlights der Beziehung zwischen Gillian und Chad, Lord Kendale, in Form von fünf Kissen, beginnend in der Kindheit, aneinander. Anschaulich und spannend geschrieben, war ich ganz begeistert, bis ich zum Schluss kam. Der Schluss kostet 2 Sterne Abzug, denn er ist einfach zu abrupt und unromantisch. Auch in einer Novella wäre noch Platz für zwei weitere Seiten gewesen, um den Helden etwas von seinen Gefühlen offenbaren zu lassen und zumindest kurz und leidenschaftlich um die Gefühle der Heldin zu werben, nachdem sie ihrerseits Jahre auf ihn gewartet hat. ACHTUNG SPOILER !!! Stattdessen offenbart ihm die Heldin ihre Liebe, er ist erfreut, teilt ihr mit, dass sie morgen per Speziallizenz heiraten werden (ganz der hohe Lord), macht ihr ein wirkliches Geschenk und schon sinkt sie hin ...0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. too short Von Howdy Friend It started very nicely but the ending was much too short for my thinking. It was much too smooth in the end. It didn't take that much time to read so I felt a little cheated in the end, because it started out so well. That's why I didn't spend money for the next books, I feared they were as short as this one. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. ist ok Von bobo Ich liebe Regency Romane. Dieser war mir jedoch ein wenig zu kurz, dadurch kommt man nicht wirklich in die Story rein. Es ist ein leichte, kurze Lektüre, ohne Tiefgang und ohne wirklich große Charakterdarstellung. Kann man lesen, man verpasst aber auch nichts, wenn man es nicht gelesen hat.
