I'm only 15 and I enjoyed the first book of this series, so much that I had to continue. I ended with this book and hope to see many more. Gilbert Morris did such a wonderful job writing his books that I've read others and one of his sons! He is by far my favorite author!

His books encourage me as a Christian! Lance Winslow is a man living in France (where he went after his wife died) and is fighting against World War 1 against the Germans with airplanes. Logan Smith is wounded and sent to a hospital where Lance's sister-in-law Danielle, nurses him back to health. Jo Hellinger comes to write about this war for newspapers all the way from New York. All of them are courageous and in need of God's love. A friend, Revelation Brown, helps them all with his scripture quoting and love. The story will entrance you and you won't be able to set it down for long!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. CharmingVon DorothyanneThe story of Lance Winslow, in this book, was very interesting, to me. I had been bewildered from the beginning at where Lance was coming from, since he wasn't listed with the American part of the Winslow clan. I was pleased to find out, toward the end of the book, where his family had come from. His losing his wife had been very dramatic, but God had something in store for him. His daughter, Gabby, was a well written character and was charming to me, as the reader. Jo Hellinger was interesting in that she had a lot of spunk doing what she did. Mr. Morris did a good job with his book, and I hope he can keep up and finish writing the series. If he is only at World War I, he has a long way to go still.

KurzbeschreibungWhen Lieutenant Lance Winslow goes to France to train with the best fliers in the world, he meets Noelle Laurent on the snowy streets of Paris and falls in love. Their marriage brings him great joy, but love cannot stop the Great War's approach...nor can his plane stop every German bomber. Josephine Hellinger quits her job with the New York Times to become a free-lance war correspondent. Knowing that no newspaper wants a female journalist on such a dangerous assignment, she strikes out on her own. When Josephine meets Lance Winslow, he is an embittered warrior. Personal tragedy fuels his single-minded obsession--to kill as many Germans as he can. Josephine must try to make a difference before it is too late.(House of Winslow Book 23)KurzbeschreibungWhen Lieutenant Lance Winslow goes to France to train with the best fliers in the world, he meets Noelle Laurent on the snowy streets of Paris and falls in love.
