Traditionellem Märchen liebevoll Leben eingehaucht Von alocin Jenni James hat dem traditionellen Märchen vom Froschkönig Leben eingehaucht. Die Personen sind sympathisch, die Dialoge lebendig. Ein Buch, das mich zum Lächeln

bingt. Der Stil bleibt insofern märchenhaft, dass der Hintergrund für die Geschichte nur angedeutet wird, Details sind nicht nötig und Realismus wird gar nicht angestrebt. Wie bei einem Zwei-Personen-Theaterstück vor kargem Bühnenbild konzentriert sich so alles auf die beiden Hauptpersonen, die Jenni James liebevoll gezeichnet hat. Obwohl das Buch leider recht kurz ist, wird die Entwicklung der Beziehung von Caspian/Nolan und Blythe glaubhaft und ich gönne ihnen ihr märchengerechtes "happily ever after" (das deutsche "und wenn sie nicht gestorben sind..." drückt leider das märchenhaft glückliche Ende nicht so gut aus). Ich werde nach diesem ersten Zufallstreffer sicherlich weitere Märchen von Jenni James lesen. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. nette geschichte Von Yvnette geschichte, nicht zu lang und auch gut verständlich. kann ich jedem empfehlen, der sein englisch wieder auf vordermann bringen möchte. das format, die schrift und formatierung finde ich persönlich sowieso entzückend :)...herziges buch, liegt gut in der hand :)...werde mir definitiv noch andere dieser serie kaufen :) 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. intriguing twist on the original tale Von Katharina Gerlach (Indie Autorin) Although a little short, this story provides a fun twist on the original fairy tale. The prince deliberately lets himself be turned into a frog to find out whether his betrothed is the spoiled child he believes -- boy is he in for a surprise.

Kurzbeschreibung A prince disguises himself to find true love Prince Nolan has had enough of Princess Blythe the woman to whom he has been betrothed since infancy and her simpering letters. Does the princess truly not have a brain in her head? Never before has he communicated with someone who seemed so childish and spoiled. It was time he met her for himself, to decide if he could actually follow through with this marriage. But to do it right, she must not see how handsome he is. He needs a disguise something that would show her his true nature. Nolan asks an old herb woman to transform him into a creature that is disgusting to any female a frog. The spell will last thirty days unless the princess does the impossible and kisses him. Now the true test begins. Will Blythe prove to be as monstrously annoying as he believes she is, or will he learn to see past his judgments and find a loving princess waiting for him?
