Wonderful!Von LeaI discovered the first book of the trilogy accidentally, immediately got hooked to it, and could not but read all the three volumes in a row. It's a wonderful trilogy! The first two volumes in particular are very bleak - the crime stories of course, but even more so the whole social context that gets depicted: the personal history of a child orphaned as a young boy and then confronted with all sorts of tragic events up until his adulthood (first volume), and the sad background story of orphaned children and how they were commonly (mis)treated back in the not-so-long-gone past (second volume). Each of the stories revolves around a mysterious murder, of course: a gruesome one in the first volume (with a rather unnecessary crude description of the autopsy - you can skip it, it's of little relevance to the plot), a mysterious one in the second volume, and a rather surreal one in the third volume. I personally liked the first volume most, it is the richest and most multi-layered (and longest, too). But actually all of them are excellent, beautifully written from beginning to end, gripping! Each volume uncovers a new layer of the key protagonist's personal history (the third volume is particularly interesting in this respect - you thought you would know him by then, but then emerges a whole new and rather surprising layer of his life). It all adds up to a truly wonderful read, best read in the right order. Thank you Mr May! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Tolles Buch Von Kat "Lewis Man" von Peter May habe ich mir gekauft, weil es das als Kindle Deal gab und ich etwas zum Lesen brauchte. Von diesem Buch war ich so begeistert, dass ich mir auch die anderen beiden Bücher der Trilogie gekauft habe. Das Buch ist toll geschrieben. Das Englisch ist sehr gut, auch wenn es anspruchsvoller geschrieben ist als die meisten Bücher die ich sonst auf Englisch lese. Das ist allerdings positiv gemeint! Die Bücher sind alle sehr flüssig zu lesen und sehr spannend. Ich wusste nie was als nächstes passiert. Absolute Kaufempfehlung! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. excellent and unusual Von B. Rosswell written, lots of suspense and atmosphere and our next holiday destination might just be the Hebrides ... three captivating and entertaining novels, what more can you ask for?
