Tragedy in two young lives results in bitterness and fearVon Bonnie McKinzieThe youngest Cameron brother, Paul is pastoring his first church when tragedy hits hard. He runs, turns his back on God and his loving family and wishes for death. At the same time, Abigail is burying her beloved Ian, a minister. Ian's father blames her for his death and vows to get even. With this fear, she travels far away and ends up falling back on her nursing experience to care for the critically injured Paul. His anger and her fear cause them to clash until he regains his health and she leads him back to God. What then? I enjoyed this book number 3 of this series by Lori Wick. I would recommend it to those who like easy reading and simple and sweet lives of people of yesteryear.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Well written and engaging Von Dorothyanne I read the first book in this series and fell in love with Lori Wick. The second one, I felt was slow, but I still loved it. This one was wonderful. Ms Wick shows that life is not all roses and rainbows. I like how she had Paul changes so dramatically after his wife died. By the middle of the book, I hardly recognized him from the man at the beginning. Abby was a wonderful character, a strong Christian. The way Ms. Wick weaved these characters together was ingenious. I loved this book and I cannot wait to read the fourth in this series.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. unique! Von KL Wagenbach This isn't the same old sappy story that a lot of romance books are. It has a good, clean sense of humor in the characters too. It makes me smile when he called her "Red" and she didn't like to be called "Red." This book has a different picture on the front than the one I read. I like the other picture better--it was more old-fashioned and more fitting to the time period. This book is also good for those who loose a spouse and remarry.

Kurzbeschreibung She cant be dead! the young pastor cried as he looked down at the still, white face of his new bride. Blinded by bitterness, Paul Cameron leaves his church and flees to a logging camp deep in the north woods of Wisconsin. There he wrestles with his loss unable to get Corrine out of his mind and unwilling to make peace with God. When a falling tree crushes his legs, Paul can run no further. Broken now in body as well as spirit, he must face his own heart as he encounters the love of God in the patient care of his nurse, Abigail Finlayson. The Long Road Home touches shattered dreams with Gods faithfulness and the possibility of new love in this turn of the century romance.
