manchmal geht es anders... Von emma... als der held sich denkt. hier erscheint er als retter, obwohl er eigentlich finstere absichten hat - um spter seine meinung zu ndern und seine herzensdame doch noch zu retten.nicht schlecht geschrieben, vor allem, weil man mit der heldin mitfhlt und thomas wirklich fr den retter hlt - bis dann pltzlich alles anders wird.das ende war allerdings dermaen unglaublich, da ich einen punkt abziehe.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Good readVon *040610*When Eliza was 17 she fell in love with Thomas Blackstone, a second son of a baron. But when he proposed marriage her mother forced Eliza to refuse because he neither had a title nor a fortune. Now, seven years later, they meet again because of a clandestine mission during the war between England and Spain. Thomas has made a fortune as a mercenary by selling himself, his ship and his crew to the one who pays best. Lady Eliza as a seer is in service of the crown. All their feelings are still alive but Thomas refuses to admit. Instead he is very angry to this day. Then he discovers the truth about the "treasure" she has with her. But it is too late to change his mission. He is combated and Lady Eliza is captured by a Spanish spy. Not knowing what became of the injured Thomas, thinking him most likely dead, her fate seems to be clear.This short story, settled in the time of Elizabeth I, is developed quite well. You get a glimpse of the courtly life, tension is generated until the end and the main characters are shaped believable. It was a nice and quick read.
