KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Se historische LovestoryVon VioAls "Mail-Order-Bride" ist Hope Branson vor zehn Jahren nach Marshall's Rigde in Oregon gezogen. Seit vier Jahren verwitwet, droht die junge Mutter nun auch noch ihre Farm zu verlieren. Doch es gibt Hoffnung, und die erscheint in Form ihres reichen Nachbarn Wyatt Cutler, der schon Inger Interesse an der jungen

Witwe hat. Diese kurze Novelle von LeeAnn Mackenzie ist eine niedliche Geschichte mit netten Charakteren, die mir aber nicht lange im Gedächtnis bleiben wird. Obwohl sie nett geschrieben ist, gibt es einige orthografische Fehler, auch die Formatierung ist seltsam, da direkte Reden oft unterbrochen werden, um Abstände zu schaffen. Die Geschichte ist zu unausgegoren, der Konflikt, der die Geschichte spannend machen soll, löst sich in Windeseile auf und schon endet das Buch, ohne dass uns die Autorin die Gelegenheit gibt, ihren Hauptprotagonisten überhaupt näher kennenzulernen. Eine genauere Charakterzeichnung und eine bessere Formatierung hätten dem Buch gut getan, so aber kann ich es nur mit 2,5 Sternen bewerten.

Kurzbeschreibung A mail order romance from the author of the Bestselling Mail Order Mrs. Series: Updated edition. Some fences were made to be torn down... Hope Branson arrived on the Oregon frontier as a mail order bride. Life in Marshall's Ridge was good until her husband died. After a poor harvest, she's in danger of losing her farm, the only home their young son has ever known. Tall, rugged Wyatt Cutler has returned home to take control of his family's large ranch. Wyatt is a man who can't resist helping a neighbor in need, especially one as beautiful and headstrong as Hope. Their attraction: undeniable. His secret: unavoidable. Wyatt and Hope were destined to be together and they'll soon Discover that this time, love is playing for keeps...
