Kundenrezensionen Hilfreichste Kundenrezensionen 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. a real funny story Von Andreas Lamers special if you like the mixed races story's, the humiliation of the man comes good in the book and the end makes it much better. a unusual story and closed in them self KurzbeschreibungA full-on, hard-hitting cautionary tale from the best-selling pen and twisted imagination of Tiggy Mills. The story of a weak-willed man who loses his daughter, his wife, his self-respect, his family and then terribly even more to a powerful Nigerian who uses all the women of the family. It is a story of sexual submission, abject degradation and complete domination that pushes the boundaries of interracial humiliation.A moment of indecision or timidity can start a chain of events that seem to just evolve by themselves. Tony was a weak man and his weakness led him to make one small mistake that allowed the black Nigerian boyfriend of his young daughter to gain control of his household. Not just his daughter, but his needful wife Janet and then, one by one the rest of the females in his family. It seemed impossible but he was a Nigerian prince, and had an irresistible sexual power over women. It was his custom and delight to take and service all females in his brood - and he does with zeal relish and a sexual power that left all the women helplessUltimately it is a story about trust which asks the question: can woman really put her faith in a handsome and powerful black prince from Nigeria just because he fucks her like a black god? Well maybebut sometimes it is not such a good ideaOver 18 only: strong interracial content.Word count: 24,932KurzbeschreibungA full-on, hard-hitting cautionary tale from the best-selling pen and twisted imagination of Tiggy Mills.
